AN IDAHO VIEW OF THE ELECTION

How the Contest in Salt Lake Is Viewed by Senator Dubois's New Paper.

CHURCH NOMINATES TWO MEN FOR THE MAYORALTY

Apostle Smoot and Associates Refuse to Allow Democratic Party to Retire.

The following is taken from the Idaho Scimitar, Schater Dubois's new weekly paper, the first issue of which is just

The practical elimination of the Demo-atic party in Utah, under direction of a Mormon church, is rapidly progressing.

Apostle Smoot and his associates of the church blerarcity refuse to allow the Democratic party in Salt Lake City and the state to retire decently and in order from an unavailing conflict, where nothing but dishonor and defent are to be obtained. They make that the party shall remain in existence under a pretense that the division upon national party lines is a necessity and a sanctity. In election after election the Democratic leaders are induced to believe that the church will either grant favors or permit the voters to exercise their free choice of candidates and policy. In election turns to disappointment and the local Democracy finds itself operating as an addinct to the Smoot Republican machine utilized only as an advertisement to the nation of the falsehood that there is such a thing as politics in Utah.

Just now the church has nominated two candidates for the mayoralty, Richard P. Morris has been selected under the Democratic hame; and his party friends are voluble in their assertions that he will be elected to the office from which entired two years ago. Candid ones among them are willing to voice their hope that the church will assist him to this end, as it assisted him into the mayoralty four years ago in opposition to Frank Knox the Gentile Republican candidates Thus is kept alive the glow of Democratic hope and an apparent reason for the maintenance of Democratic hope and an apparent reason for the maintenance of Democratic hope and an apparent reason for the maintenance of Democratic hope and an apparent reason for the maintenance of Democratic hope and an apparent reason for the maintenance of Democratic hope and an apparent reason for the maintenance of Democratic hope and an apparent reason for the maintenance of Democratic hope and an apparent reason for the maintenance of Democratic hope and an apparent reason for the maintenance of Democratic hope and an apparent reason for the maintenance of Democratic hope and an apparent reason for the maintenance of Democratic hope and an apparent Apostle Smoot and his associates of the Foreordained Contest.

Republican candidate of the churc

The Republican candidate of the church in this foreordained contest is Dr. Charles G. Plummer, a Gentile, but affiliated with the church Republican machine and the new favorite of the enclesiastical government. Through the persuasion of the Smoot crowd, Dr. Plummer was induced to stand as a candidate, against the wish of such of his friends as are not in close affiliation with Smootism, and it is apparent that, to induce him to refuse such advice, he must have received positive assurance that he is not to be offered up as a sacrifice on the altar of the strictly Mormon candidate, of Richard P. Morris, the Democrat.

Under ordinary circumstances, having to choose between a tried and true Mormon candidate and a Gentile candidate, the church prefers the Mormon, no matter what party he may represent, but these are not ordinary circumstances. A pliant Gentile is often, and particularly under existing conditions, more useful to the church than a Mormon. Smoot is building up his Republican machine and must vindicate to the Republican party of the nation his pretension of absolute control of the political operations in his state and surrounding country. Therefore it seems likely that the Democracy will suffer not only betrayal once more, but raink humilitation.

Some of the Slat Lake newspapers and politicians oppowed to the church seem to think that Joseph F. Smith will keep a

Some of the Slat Lake newspapers and politicians opposed to the church seem to think that Joseph F. Smith will keep a Democrat in the mayoralt, of Salt Lake in order to justify the maintenance of democratic organization, and they argue that as he once selected Morris he will do so again. But the conditions are different today from those which existed four years ago. At that time Frank Knox, Gentile and Republican, was very repugnant to the Mormon hierarchy. Today Dr. Charles G. Plummer, Gentile and Republican, is very acceptable to the Mormon hierarchy, and may be a more Mormon hierarchy, and may be a more available candidate than a Mormon would be. It seems to be assured that all of the Mormon church strength will be thrown to the candidacy of Charles G. Plummer, Republican, and that the Democracy of Salt Lake is to once more drink the bitter cup.

It was the intention of the church two years ago when there were three tickets in the field. American, Republican and Democratic, to elect the Republican and Democratic, to elect the Republican candidate, William J. Lynch. Morris at that time represented as now, the church choice within the Democratic party. Lynch was a weak candidate, and on election day, finding that he was running behind on his ticket, the church transferred bodily its large mass of pilant voters to the Democratic column to beat the American candidate. There has been much change since that time; and it is no longer necessary to rely upon the personal popularity of Morris. Plummer is as strong a candidate as any Gentile could be, and the church has had two years to prepare its Democracy of Salt Lake cast approximately 4000 votes. It is questionable if, in this municipal election Morris will get more than 4000. In such case the race will probably show: Bransford, American, first; Plummer, church Republican, second, and Morris, church Republican, party; and it will have added one more dishoner as well as defeat to its record.

Sardonic Pause.

Sardonic Pause.

Sardonic Pause.

However, we are brought at this point to a somewhat sardonic pause by the consciousness that no mere outside observer can be quite sure of the Mormon church purpose until that purpose is revealed by the event. Under the cover of a promise to Dr. Plummer, the Republican candidate, and a pretended devotion to his candidate, the church may be merely intending to give Mr. Morris a chance to demonstrate to the world a personal popularity, carefully induced by secret instructions; or it may be merely intending to capture the City Council of Salt Lake, thereby nullifying the effects of an American party victory. Indeed there are not wanting indications that the latter is their real intent, regardless of the fate of both Plummer and Morris, since the church leaders, dominating the local political machine, have succeeded in effecting fusion of Democrats and Republicans in various wards in Salt Lake, making of these hereditary enemies political bed-fellows, at the behest of the church, in order to secure the election of the church city councilmen.

councilmen.

That there can be any question of the event in Salt Lake City is the highest tribute to the evel sagecity of the Mormon leaders. Salt Lake is essentially Gentile in its population; it has multiplied numerically and financially under the impetus of Gentile citizenship; its future is dependent upon Gentile domination. Under these circumstances, and with the full consciousness that the eyes of the nation are upon Salt Lake, one would think that the Gentiles would rally of the nation are upon Sair Lake, one would think that the Gentiles would rally thround the American party, and that no man or woman not a slave to the Mormon church, would be wanting for the American cause when the roll shall be called on election day.

TOLD TO FOLLOW WILL OF LEADERS

Bishop McMillan Cuts Loose at Twenty-Eighth Ward Fast Meeting.

VILIFIES MEMBERS OF AMERICAN PARTY

Why a Member of Woman's Relief Society Will Vote Republican Ticket.

Bishop William McMillan of Twenty-eighth ward discursed patities a little at the regular monthly fast meeting held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the ward meeting house, at 750 West Third North, Bishop McMillan did not reach the point where he directed the 'brethren' how to vote in an active way. but he was unequivocal in his instructions not to vote the American ticket. The men on the American ticket were characterized by this bishop as a bunch of grafters, carpet baggers, boodlers and dishonest politicians. That none was fit to hold office in an American city. seemed to be the argument which Bishop McMillan used to show the people that it was right not to vote the American ticket. If the people of the Twenty-eighth ward would vote, it certainly must not be the American ticket. Bishop McMillan did not say which ticket to vote, but he suggested that it would be a good thing to follow "the will of the leaders" whenever their will in such matters was known. He said it was not their will that the Mormons should vote the American ticket, but failed to go any further with his instructions at that meeting. Just how the "brethren" will know the will of the "leaders" in matters political was not stated at the meeting.

It is alleged, however, by prominent Americans in this ward that Bishop McMillan has been doing a little "whispering" through the ward for the Republican ticket. One instance is cited. It appears that a member of the Woman's Relief Society had piedged her vote to an American, but later she stated that the "bishop" had told her not to vote thus and that she was going to vote the Republican ticket. Just how far this has gone, and what effect it will have can best be shown on election day. If this "Republican" bishop with his "Democratte ward shall send in a hig vote for Dr. Plummer, and Fernie Fernstrom, the Fusion-Republican Democrat.

The city directory gives William McMillan, 345 North Fifth West, as an assistant recorder in the Tenders" in directing against the American ticket, and a little discretion in not mentioning the Republican ticket, at least in fast meeting, but nevertheless working for the same. semed to be the argument which Eishop McMilan used to show the people that it
